	Junk Art/Golem/Azul	Board Game	In one session you will play three award-winning games! In "Azul", the game Azul, players take turns drafting colored tiles from suppliers to their player board. Later in the round, players score points based on how they've placed their tiles to decorate the palace. Extra points are scored for specific patterns and completing sets; wasted supplies harm the player's score. The player with the most points at the end of the game wins. In "Junk Art", some see junk, others see art! Let your creativity take over as everything you touch turns into magnificent structures and extraordinary creations! But you're not the only talented artist in town and you must prove yourself by taking the road, showing your skills and making new fans in this unique card game with junk pieces! In "Century: Golem Edition" discover the enchanting beauty of the golem trade road and its mesmerizing crystals! Wrap your mind around simple and pure game mechanics combined with a touch of hand-building system that lead to endless strategies and decisions. Century: Golem Edition is truly a magical experience and an outstanding game!	Chris Funk	6
	Zombicide (modern)	Board Game	"The prison is a time bomb. If the zombies locked up here escape, they will flood the entire city within a few hours before spreading into the whole country. We don't want that, so we are going to clean this place. It has to be done, and we're the ones doing it!". Using "Zombicide Game Night 3" kit your Survivors will face hordes of zombies and destroy them. This means that you will quickly gain busloads of experience and will need the most powerful weapons just as quickly. You will probably have several Survivors turned into Zombivors. It's a challenge, but you love a challenge, don't you? Each player will each take home their own exclusive survivor miniatures (regular and Zombivor versions), character cards and experience tracker. $5 per player collected by GM	Bryan Moore	6

Zombicide GREEN HORDE	Board Game	This sequel to the smash hit Zombicide: Black Plague will bring players back into a world of deadly medieval fantasy, this time filled with infected orcs and goblins who will put survivors to the ultimate test. This green menace is not only stronger than their human counterparts, but they also tend to gather into massive hordes that ambush the survivors when they least expect it. Uncover the many surprises the Green Horde has in store for you! They were a brave people, living on the edge of the Orcish lands?on the Western frontier. It was a rough country, where nature grows wild, and the weather can change at a moment's notice. They fought with the brutish Orcs many times, withstanding raids on their villages and fields. Never once, in all those battles, did they consider leaving for safer regions of the world. This was their land, their ancestor's land. Generations had grown up in its green forests and fields, taking what the earth gave them, and defending what was theirs. But the Orcs were relentless, becoming bolder and bolder as time went on. When the plague hit, it wasn't long before the Orcs became infected. All it took was one bite, and the sickness spread through their ranks like wildfire. What the plague robbed the Orcs of in intelligence, agency, and personality, it replaced with a single-minded goal: destroy the living and feast on their flesh. The Orcs band together now, a pack, a horde. They travel the countryside, attacking the towns they come across, but now stealing some crops or a cow or two doesn't suffice. They're not satisfied until the people of the village are dead... or perhaps worse, undead.	Randy Miller	6
